PREFACE

Orissa abounds with rich private papers in the custody of the rulers and successors of the former Princely States, religious institutions and eminent men in all walks of life. These papers are undoubtly of great historical importance. It was therefore felt necessary to make a systematic survey of this cultural heritage and to prepare a descriptive list of documents acquired from private sources for the benefit of the scholarly world. The present volume is the first under the series comprising descriptive lists of documents acquired from various individuals and private institutions in Orissa.

When we talk of private records as distinguished from public records many of us hardly realise the wide variety of materials the expression covers. They include the records of eminent men in all walks of life which include travelogue, diaries, correspondences of personal nature with friends and relatives and notes and memoranda kept for personal use. Besides these, the records of the socio-cultural and religious institutions, business concerns, banking houses and philanthropic societies etc., come within the scope of the private records. In respect of their location and survey, appraisal and acquisition, each class of these records presents problems of its own and as such in compiling the present volume we were confronted with these difficulties. However sincere attempts have been made to give the main features of private records in the collection of Orissa State Archives highlighting the place and personal names and also the subjects the documents pertain to.

Some important collections listed in the volume deserve special notice. Mention may be made in this connection of the collection of S. N. Das Mohapatra. Before dealing with the records it is proper to allude briefly to the history of the family for appreciation of the contents of the records. The history of the family has been recorded in the Judgement of a title suit case No. 31 of 1931 in the Second Court of the Subordinate Judge at Midnapore) in which one Shri Satyendranandan Das Mohapatra was the plaintiff. According to it, Kula Murari Mohan Das Mohapatra was the earliest known member of the family. He was a resident of Athagarh in the district of Cuttack. He was in the service of the Mughat Emperor and he happended to come to Kalampur in the Pataspur Pargana of the Midnapore district where he settled down permanently. He reclaimed the Jungle and settled the tenants in the area reclaimed. He was recognised as a Zamindar of that area, and assigned Nunkar lands. Thus the hereditary Zamindary of the family started from the time of Kula Murari Mohan Das Mohapatra. It may, however, be noted here that there is no reference to himin any of the family records available but he is taken as the founder of the family in the family tradition. The earliest record of the family of the year 1706 in the reign of Auranzeb is missing, but we get a reference of this Sanad from the case record referred to above.

The next record in chronological order is a Sanad granted to Mangaraj Das Mohapatra by Sarbuland Khan in the 3rd regnal year of Emperor Shah Alam. According to this Sanad, Taluqdari and choudhuri of the Pargana Pataspur in Sarkar Jaleswar under Bandar Balasore were conferred on Mangaraj Das Mohapatra in place of Dinakar and Dibakar in conformity with the Sanad granted by the former Divan. All Government Officers and raiyats in the area were informed that they were to regard Mangaraj Das Mohapatra as the permanent Zamindar, Taluqdar of the Pargana. In the enclosures to the Sanad the Pargana of Pataspur is stated to consist of 142 mauzas and 7 Mahals. The Sanad was granted in the 3rd regnal year of the reign of Shah-Alam, that is the year 1709 A. D.

The third Sanad was granted to Choudhurain Ganga Dei daughter-in-law of Mangaraj Das Mohapatra after the death of her husband Nityananda Das Mohapatra by Nawab Shujauddin Mohammad Khan in the first regnal year of the reign of Muhammad Shah. The name of the Nawab is written at the top of the Sanad, below it there is a small seal of Abdul Latif. According to this Sanad, Ganga Dei was appointed as Chaudhurain of the Pargana Pataspur in Sarkar Jaleswar in Chakla Bandar Balasore on the death of her husband Nityananda Das Mohapatra. The Taluqdari, Zamindari and Chaudhurain of the said Pargana was registered in her name according to preveous convention. The Sanad contains another date towards the end . It is Amli Year 1127 (1719-20 A. D.)

From the next record it appears that Ganga Dei was unable to manage the estate and pay the revenue dues. An amount of Rs. 700 only was due on her on account of the Government revenue which she paid after borrowing the same from Jugal Kishore Das Mohapatra, the son of Govindram Das Mohapatra. She relinquished Zamindari and office of the Chaudhurain of Pragana in favour of Jugal Kishore Das Mohapatra in the Amli year 1128 that is one year after she was appointed as Chaudhurain of Pataspur. In the record under discussion there is a copy of the deed executed by Ganga Dei in favour of Jugal Kishore Das Mohapatra in the Amli year 1128 that is one year after she was appointed as Chaudhurain of Pataspur.

There is true copy of another document relating to assignment of nankar lands with a revenue of Rs. 2,250 or a little more to Jugal Kishore in addition to land yielding a revenue of Rs. 3,000 already assigned. The additional grant was for the expenses of maintaining horses, camels and bearers of bells. The grant was made by Abdul Mansur Safdar Jang, the vizir in the first regnal year of Ahmad Shah, i. e., in 1748 A. D.

Though the above documents relate to the history of a particular family they are not without of general historical interest especially relating to the revenue history of Orissa.

For the study of the history of Orissa during the Mughal period, the collection of Rai Mahasay family of Bhadrak is no less important. It may be mentioned here that Bhadrak was the headquarters of Bhadrak Sarkar of the Mughal Orissa. Rai Mahasayas were appointed as Sadar Kanungoes for collection of revenue in each Sarkar. As such Bhadrak Rai family is one of the oldest Zamindari of Orissa and fortunately we get a list of family members from this collection who were Rai Mahasayas in different periods.

The records of the other collections belonging to the Mughal, Maratha and British period throw much light on the Hindu-Muslim cultural animilation. There are quite a good number of documents granting lands and money by the Hindus and Muslims for the maintenance of the religious shrines belonging to opposite sects. To illustrate a few example mention may be made of a debottur Sanad executed by Mirza Wali Baig, Zamindar of Lalit Giri of Cuttack Sadar recording the grant of 4 bighas 6 biswas of land for the worship of Lord Gopinath. The Sanad was executed in 1119 Amli which corresponds to 1711-1712 A. D. In the year 1765, one Gokulananda Mahapatra Choudhury had executed—Khairat Sanād granting 6 batis 15 manas of land in favour of Hazrat Zille Subhani to utilise the same for charitable purposes. Similarly another document datable to 1734 A. D. records that Choudhury Gopinath Mohapatra of Pargana Soro had granted 36 batis 18 bighās 23 gunthas of baniar land to Hazrat Zille Subhani for the same purpose. In the year 1832 one Shri Fakir Moharana executed a Sanad granting 2 batis of land for the construction of a Mosque, dome of the shrine and the boundary wall around the famous Muslim shrine Qadam Rasul. Another document datable to 1721 A. D. records the grant of one bati of land by one Choudhury Chhalia Singh in favour of the shrine of Hazrat Saiyed Ahmed Shaheed. Many such documents have been listed in this volume highlighting the Hindu-Muslim cultural assimilation in Orissa through ages.

Documents found in the possession of Rulers and Successors of the former Princely States in Orissa, are the source of primary information about the economic, political and social development of the areas and as such constitute a priceless part of cultural heritage of former princely States. With a view to helping the scholars in their scholarly investigation, documents acquired from the former princely States have also been listed in this volume.

Orissa from 1900 to 1936, played a significant role in the sphere of political development in Eastern India. The role of the Oriya leaders to achieve the goal of a separate administrative unit for Orissa is an important area of study and such documents pertaining to this subject have also been listed in this volume. The documents pertaining to Oriya movement under the leadership of Madhusudan Das have been listed under the collection of Shri S. Mohanty. Similarly documents pertaining to Oriya movement under the leadership of Raja of Parlakimedihave been listed under the collections of Shri S. N. Rajguru, Digambar Rath and the Manager, Samastan Office, Parlakimedi. The documents listed under the collection of Shri S. Mohanty also throw new light on the life and activities of Madhusudan Das as a legislator and leader.

In compiling the present volume the pattern adopted by the National Archives of India under the scheme "National Register of Private Records" has been generally followed highlighting the main features. The descriptive dists of documents have been prepared collectionwise and they have been arranged in a chronological order. The dates of the documents whether in Hindu, Mohammadan or Christian era have been retained as in the original. The volume also includes glossary and indexes of all documents at the end and the number mentioned in the indexes refer to pages of the printed volume. It is hoped that the research scholars will find this work useful. This being the first attempt to prepare a reference media of private records in the collection of Orissa State Archives, we are not unaware of the short-comings of the present work. We hope our subsequent efforts will produce better results.

The descriptive list of the documents was complied mainly by the Archivists Shri B. Mohapatra and Md. Ismail Sayeedi with the assistance of the Technical Assistants of the Orissa State Archives. I express my heartfelt thanks to all of them for their assistance in preparing this compilation. Particular mention may be made in this connection of Shri B. Mohapatra and Md. Ismail Sayeedi, Archivists who also prepared the glossary and indexes of this work within a short period. I must also thank my colleague Shri N. N. Das, B. Nayak, S. C. Padhan for sparing pains to decipher the documents in old Kārani and Md. Ismail Sayeedi for deciphering the documents in persian scripts. Shri K. G. Mohapatra, Curator, in charge of publication section deserves thanks for Keeping liason with the Orissa Government Press to bring out the volume in time.

Our thanks are also due to the Director, Printing, Stationery & Publication, Orissa and the staff of Orissa Government Press, Cuttack for their help and co-operation in bringing out this volume.
